Local Department.

Mrs. C. R. Osoobock is quite ill.

The Dyckman House barn is up, and fast approaching completion.

One hundred cords of wood wanted at the NORTHERNER office, on subscription.

Mr. Chas. E. Race, of Antwerp, has sold his place and expects soon to go to Oregon.

Waverly grange is to have a pumpkin pie social at their hall, on Saturday evening, Nov. 4th.

Colum. Engle, Cole Bawson, Wm. Thayer, and J. W. Free, have gone on their annual deer hunt up north.

A literary society has been organized in Almena, the proceeds to be used for the benefit of the Sunday school.

Morning subject at First Baptist church, Autumn Leaves: in the evening at 7 o'clock, a lecture on Burns and Byron.

An uncle of W. H. Easton, of Waverly, from Kansas, is stopping with him, and intends to locate in this vicinity.

Miss Sarah Lyle is engaged to teach the Maple Grove school, in Waverly, the coming winter. She is an experienced teacher.

Are YOU Registered? If not, go at once to your Town Clerk, and give him your name. This is not meant for your neighbor, but for you.

Mr. C. E. Hutchins is holding a musical institute in Covert. The people of that pleasant village will find him abundantly qualified to fill his position.

Our correspondents must pardon us for abridging their correspondence so largely. Until after election we must devote a large amount of space to political matter.

Our new iron bridge is an accomplished fact. It is a beauty, and while the first cost is considerably more than a wooden structure, it will probably be much cheaper in the long run.

Mrs. M. Adele Hazlett delivered an excellent campaign address, to a good audience, at the Court House, on Thursday evening last. She is a fine speaker and is doing a good work.

Plenty of good looking school ma'ams in town to-day.

N. H. Doyle and family have removed to St. Joseph, Mich. Mr. D. goes into the hotel business.

A Trowbridge tiller of the soil husked 400 bushels of ears from 3½ acres of land—Leader! What tremendous large ears the people of Trowbridge must have, and what do they husk them for, any way?

We are glad to notice that our fellow townsman, Riley Bangs, who has been confined to his house a long time, has so far recovered his strength as to be able to leave his house and to walk about town a little.

They are again laying iron on the narrow gauge. It will take three car-loads more to finish the road to Hartford. If there are no further delays in procuring the rest of the iron, the train will probably reach Hartford next week.

The members of the bar in various counties of the State, are interesting themselves in looking after the vote on the constitutional amendment relative to the salaries of Circuit Judges. With proper effort the measure will be adopted, as it ought to be.

The members of A. Lincoln Post, G. A. R., and the citizens of Bangor, recently purchased a magnificent sword and belt, costing fifty dollars, and presented the same to Col. J. G. Todd, of that place. The Col. swells up a good deal since he received it, and we don't blame him.

The many friends of H. D. Harrower, a former principal of our school, will be interested in hearing that he is about to lessen his sorrows, and increase his joys, by taking unto himself a help-mate. The lady who has captivated the Prof., resides in N. Y. City, and the ceremony occurs Oct. 31st.

Judge Hilton held a fine meeting at Geneva, Tuesday night, and another at Bloomingdale, Wednesday night. At the latter place a large proportion of his audience were ladies, which fact, together with the presence of the new band in a new hall, and the good cause, put the speaker in excellent feather.

Prof. N. P. Stanton will give a grand vocal and instrumental concert at Longwell's Opera House this (Friday) evening, for the benefit of the M. E. Church society. Those who met Prof. Stanton when here before, will doubtless be glad of the opportunity to attend another of his entertainments. Tickets at Chappell's.

We have the following farther reports from some of our sorghum growers: Nathan Merchant reports 54 gallons of syrup from 38 rods of ground. Manufactured by the Armstrongs in Waverly. We know it was nice, as we saw a sample of it. Reed Sirrine says he had 27 gallons of very thick, nice syrup from a little less than 18 rods of ground, and that he don't propose to be beaten by any Deputy Sheriff. He also reports 37 bushels of mangelwurzel from 9 rods of ground, and desires to hear from some man who can beat that.

We have heard that some men say Mr. Van Auker will lose votes because he interfered with the robbers and gamblers, at the Bangor races, and made them disgorge their ill-gotten plunder. Mr. V. can stand all such losses. He will gain more from the moral law abiding part of community, by his commendable course, than he will lose, at the hands of those who uphold open public gambling and swindling, even if the second-rate did pay the racing association for the privilege of carrying on their nefarious business.

Sheriff Van Auker did a good thing at the Bangor races, by shutting up the several gambling games that were being carried on there, and compelling the "Detroit Thugs" who were running them, to refund the money of which they had robbed people, to the amount of about $200. Mr. Miller, who is President of the association, undertook to have the gamblers go ahead, saying they had licensed them, and they could proceed. Van said so! if a map opens another swindling game here, I will take him into custody. The good people of Van Buren county will commend Mr. Van Auker for doing as he did.

Prof. Werschkul's concert on Tuesday evening last, was a success, and with perhaps one or two exceptions the pieces were excellently well rendered, and were appreciated as well as applauded by the audience. Such a work as Mr. W. has done in this town is not only very desirable, but it is creditable both to himself and to his pupils. He is a most thorough and competent instructor, and it is much to be regretted that a greater number of our singers did not avail themselves of the opportunity of attending his classes. We hope some time in the future there will be interest enough manifested in the subject of vocal music, to enable our people to procure the Prof. to come again. He has many warm friends here.

Miss Louie Still has gone to Marquette, to teach a six months term of school.

Soldiers, please look over the Demo-Backer ticket and see how many of your old comrades you can find on it.

Geo. W. Matthews has sold out his job printing office. There is to be a new paper started at Lawrence soon. We understand Ed. Wilson takes charge of it.

The Academy of Music, at Kalamazoo, was crowded to its utmost capacity to hear our eloquent Congressman, Hon. J. C. Burrows. Hundreds went away unable to gain admission.

Mrs. Rose Allen met with quite an accident the other day. She was building a fire, when an explosion occurred and burned her face so badly that a physician had to be called to attend her.

Yesterday morning Tom Burgess, Esq., brought us a beautiful bouquet consisting of pansies, roses, geraniums, etc. He said he thought he would gather the roses before frost killed them. Thanks.

The annual meeting of the Antwerp Mutual Protection Association, will be held at Richmond school house, on Monday, Oct. 30th, at 7 p. m.

J. C. GOULD, Secy. PETER HARWICK, Pres.

Prof. J. H. Rosecrans, of Cincinnati, concluded, on Saturday last, a week's instruction in vocal music, to the members of the Christian church, in this village, and to such others as chose to attend. On Sunday evening a very interesting song service was held at the church, conducted by the Professor.

Mr. Burrows had a very large attendance at his meeting at Lawrence, on Monday evening last. It was intended to hold the meeting in Chadwick's Hall, but that was packed to overflowing, long before the hour of the speaking arrived, and an adjournment was had to the Congregational church. This building was packed so full that it broke down, the floor settling several inches, and large numbers were unable to gain admittance. Mr. B. spoke for two hours and a half, and the universal verdict was, that it was the best speech he ever delivered in Lawrence. His meeting at Hartford in the afternoon of the same day, was also a grand success. This county will give him a handsome majority over his fusion competitor.

We make the following extracts from a letter just received from our friend, James F. Ballard, of Aberdeen, Dak., which will be of interest to all old soldiers as well as to other friends. We invite a careful perusal of what he has to say: "I think Aberdeen and the country around it are the most delightful I ever saw. The crops are excellent. The average of the wheat crop is estimated at 35 bushels per acre from second plowing, and 20 from first. Oats yielded from 40 to 90 bushels, and some as high as 107 bushels per acre. I have seen potatoes weighing 3½ lbs. each, and we have a turnip raised on Duncombe's farm, weighing 14½ lbs., and a beet which weighs 9½ lbs. Cabbages grow so large that one would make a meal for 150 dutchemen. In some places the pumpkin vines grow so fast, that they wear out the pumpkins dragging them around. I have 163 acres of land, two miles north and twelve miles west of Aberdeen, and a timber claim of 160 acres, two miles further south, and as soon as I can prove up on my pre-emption claim, I shall enter a soldier's homestead. All the land in this vicinity will be taken up within the coming year. I hope the boys will all vote for J. C. Burrows, and I wish you would tell them so for me. I am a Greenbacker from the crown of my head to the sole of my feet, but I am no mongrel. I cannot see how any man can endorse a man who is trying to ride two horses, going in different directions. I think the man who attempts it is liable to get split, as he ought to be. And not only that, I know from personal knowledge that Mr. Burrows is a friend to the soldier, and I think it is the duty of every soldier to vote for their friends. I think the mongrel county ticket is the worst I ever saw. There are men on that ticket who cursed the Greenback party, and called them everything but honest men, and how a true Greenbacker can vote for such men, gets me. There is another thing that is noticeable, there is not a soldier on the mongrel ticket, while on the other I see a number of good soldiers. I hope the boys will stand by their soldier friends, and let such men as Ed. Blackman know that they will have nothing to do with those who call two-thirds of them thieves and robbers, as has been done in Paw Paw, both in the streets and through the press. Tell all my soldier friends to stand by those who stood by them. I am at work in the store for D. S. & Co. They are doing a very good business. S. W. is feeling well, and is up to his eyes in work. The land office is crowded most of the time. B. F. will start for home some time next week."
